

TED (White male, 18, Supporting Role): Standoffish high school grad, works at a small Laundromat. Baker's grandson. INT. LAUNDROMAT/FORMER KOZE RADIO - DAY
Ted walks in from smoking outside. Louie and Charlie stand at the counter of the Laundromat.

TED
Picking up?

CHARLIE
No. We had some questions about the radio station that was here before.

TED
Oh.

CHARLIE
Um. Didn't this building use to be a radio station?

TED
Yeah.

CHARLIE
Back in the 60s?

TED
Think so.

(a beat)

TED
My grandfather owns the place. I work on the weekends.

CHARLIE
Did he own it when it was a radio station?

Ted shrugs and eyes the backdoor.

CHARLIE
I like your shirt. (a long beat)

TED
You wanna talk to him?

Louie and Charlie freeze. They turn to look at Ted.

TED
He's out there.

Ted points to the bench with the man sleeping on it. END
